

Conjunctions

Year 3 Homework - Due in Friday
17th November

Look and learn

A conjunction is a joining word. It may be used to join two sentences.

I went home. I had my tea.

I went home and had my tea.

Practice

Rewrite these sentences. Use and or but to join them.

1. I went to the shop. I bought some sweets.

I went to the shop and I bought some sweets.

2. Abby is good at maths. She is a poor speller.

3. An elephant is big. An ant is small.

4. The dog saw me coming. It ran to me.

5. Mrs Shah stopped the car. Her daughter got out.

6. The lorry driver was slow. The police car was fast.

Challenge

Finish each sentence in your own words. Underline the conjunction in each sentence.

1. You will hurt yourself if _____

2. I was late because _____

3. We will buy some sweets when _____

4. I tried to swim the river but _____

5. I went to the shop which _____

6. My hair was too long so _____

7. The toy has been broken since _____

8. I couldn't do it although _____