

Grew a Turnip One Day

(Sing to the tune of '5 Little Ducks'.)

A little old man grew turnips one day,
He sowed the seeds and gave them a spray.
The little seeds grew and grew and grew.
The turnip was enormous before he knew.

At harvest time the turnip got stuck.
It was too big for him to pull up.
He called his wife to pull and pull,
But they had no luck moving it all!

The man and wife still pulled and tugged.
But they couldn't make the turnip budge.
They called for the boy, the girl and the dog,
And the cat and the mouse came from under a log.

The turnip came out finally,
They all cooked it up to eat for their tea.
The little man said for all to hear,
"We'll grow an enormous one again next year!"
