FEBRUARY LOOP 2024

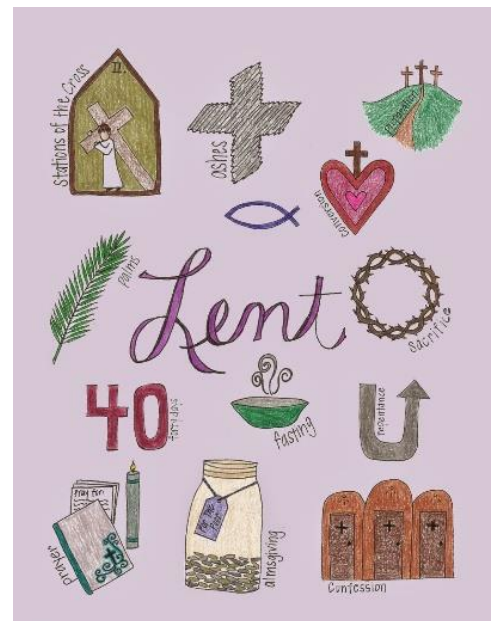

Weekly Collects, Readings and Reflection are on the website (see above.)

Entering Lent Together

As the seasons roll by, the good old Church of England provides us with a wealth of liturgy to mark the various moments in our worshipping life together. Some do the job better than others, and we all have our favourites! The preface for Lent is (in my humble opinion!) particularly beautiful and profoundly challenging:

*For in these forty days
you lead us into the desert of repentance that through a pilgrimage of prayer and discipline
we may grow in grace and learn to be your people once again.
Through fasting, prayer and acts of service
you bring us back to your generous heart.
Through study of your holy word
you open our eyes to your presence in the world and free our hands to welcome others into the radiant splendour of your love.*

As we gather round the Lord's table week by week and hear those words, may our prayer be that through our Lent disciplines we will (re)discover the heart of God and be transformed.

As is our custom, Lent will begin with two services on Ash Wednesday (14th February)- as below:

- 11.30am Eucharist at Bicton (with ashing), followed by a soup lunch. If possible, please let Wendy Horan know if you are staying for the lunch (01743 850237).
- 6.30pm, The Methodist Chapel, Bomere Heath- an Ecumenical service to mark our journey into Lent.

We will then have a series of midweek Eucharists running from 21st February to the 20th March inclusive (Wednesdays, 10am, The Mission Church in Bomere Heath), followed by coffee and a discussion based, as last year, on the Visual Commentary on Scripture.

Forest Church

Our next Forest Church will be on 25th February, 3pm at Huffley Farm, Albrighton. Please note the change of venue- the lambs will be there, so we will certainly be able to see them! Please wrap up warm and come prepared to see various animals and get involved in some sheep-ish crafts.

Save the date(s)- A Trip to Mirfield

As you know, Fr. Peter came to us from the Community of the Resurrection at Mirfield. We have been so blessed by his presence amongst us for over four years now, so we thought it was high time we paid the community a visit! We've booked two dates with them- 6th June and 12th June. They can accommodate 13 of us at a time, so there are 13 places available on each date. There will be more details to follow in the coming days, but the idea is that we join with the daily life of the community- in their worship, mealtimes and times of silence. Peter has also kindly agreed to give us a tour. Because it's relatively small numbers each time, we may go for car sharing rather than hiring a bus (Hannah can take seven passengers for a start!)... we'll see what the interest is.

For Your Prayers

- For the people of Israel and Palestine- for peace and dialogue.
- For peace.
- For our local homeless community, especially on these cold nights.
- For those who are struggling to find hope.
- For all who mourn.

Charitable donations from the Christmas Tree Festival

Thanks was expressed to all those at Holy Trinity Leaton after their Christmas Tree Festival raised £600 for Lingen Davies. Here is Angela from the charity receiving a cheque at our Candlemas service.

PANTOMIME THANK YOU

from the Churches, Parish Hall and Social Committees at Montford and Shrawardine

A huge thank you to everyone who was involved in any way with this year's production of Mother Goose. You all know who you are and the Parish Hall and Social Committees are indebted to you for the amount of time and effort put in beforehand and/or on the days.

Monies raised (as yet not finalised) will be divided between Montford and Shrawardine Churches (thank you!!) and the Hall while the raffle and some sponsorship will be put towards a defibrillator for the Parish Hall.

Here is a wonderful critique from Guy on the Friday performance:

After 11 years of the classics Severn Loop Players took on perhaps the hardest Panto of all, Mother Goose, which mops up all the remaining fairy tale characters and challenges the Panto world to give us a great night out.

I'm pleased to report in true style SLP pulled it off. Like a box of Quality Street, before us unwrapped a delicious variety of colourful characters, each with a distinct flavour that all together gave us a Panto triumph.

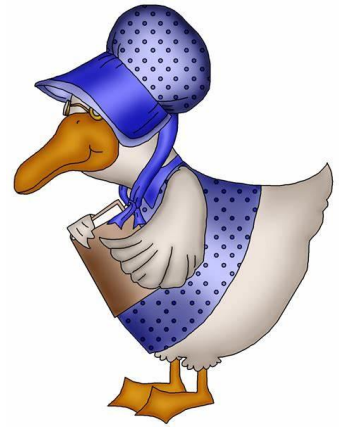

Why are SLP complimented with full houses each year? The answer is how well each element of the Panto experience is done, from our compare who lowers our expectations beautifully, the personality put into the music, transformative stage sets, imaginative costumes and great fun makeup. Wrapped up in a script written for the characteristics of each actor, where ad libs and the written lines are seamlessly blended, although clearly no one told the curtain operators!

So once again we had strong performances from all the main characters. Starting with the ying and yang of Hansel and Gretel. The thoughtful drawl of the big, bad wolf who clearly feels he's just misunderstood and is probably a closet vegetarian, who never really stood a chance against a Goldilocks fresh off the "made in Chelsea" set. We actually felt sorry for the wicked witch who excellently bemoaned her change of part to the dark side. The lost innocence of little Red Riding Hood, who is portrayed by an actor clearly in love with drag and thoroughly enjoying the innuendo of a woodsman and her chopper.

Add in the wider cast of well acted fairy land characters ranging from goblins, Easter fairy and her Bunny, to the inexplicable arrival of dancing flamingos that SLP is famous for. All these disparate characters are held together by the flamboyance of our Geordie mother goose, whose twerking bottom safely leads us to a happy ending.

The stand out scene was the Three Bears, where Pythonesque 'don't mess with me' mother bear, her hapless daddy bear and spoilt baby bear take us beautifully through the simple much loved story of porridge, chairs and beds. A credit to all things Panto.

Where SLP go from here we don't know but the obvious happiness in their rendition of 'don't stop me now, we're having a great time' clearly showed. It will be worth waiting for!
